Edwards' sermon entitled, "Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God" takes a harsh, yet realistic approach to evangelism. Especially in today's society, is this type of approach helpful? Harmful? Is it necessary? Examine your own feelings in regards to a sermon preached in this manner. Do your feelings line up with scripture? Explain. Create a strong, persuasive paragraph that clearly communicates your point of view. Your paragraph should include a topic sentence and two properly integrated proofs. 200-250 words.

Remember – your extended response should include:

- € a strong, persuasive topic sentence (first sentence of response)
- € 2 properly integrated proofs (i.e. one Edwards quote and one Bible verse)
- € a clincher sentence to sum up the paragraph
